Training Teachers Globally
www.teacharoundtheworld.org

International Training Customized for Your Teachers

Programs developed & delivered in diverse regions around the globe.

Students & teachers served in Zimbabwe, India, Mongolia, Japan, Thailand, and more.

Needs assessed through surveys and personal conferences.

21st-century instructional strategies and classroom management customized for your students, your teachers, your schools.

Classroom climates created to be engaging and inquiry-focused.

Workshops offered include Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL).

Customized Curriculum Development.

Dr. Lynne Steyer Noble, a professor of Education at Columbia College in Columbia, SC, has years of experience teaching in early childhood, elementary and university settings.

Dr. Noble is recognized for international curriculum development and training in international settings.

She holds a TEFL certificate.

lynnesnoble@gmail.com

Hands-on, On-site Training for Teachers.

Libby Foster Paul, a classroom teacher with 27 years of experience in private, public, and international classrooms, conducts teacher-training programs in diversified international settings.

She is certified as a reading and history specialist; studied in the Middle East on a Fulbright scholarship; trained as an International Baccalaureate teacher; and coordinated international and national student trips.

libbyfosterpaul@gmail.com